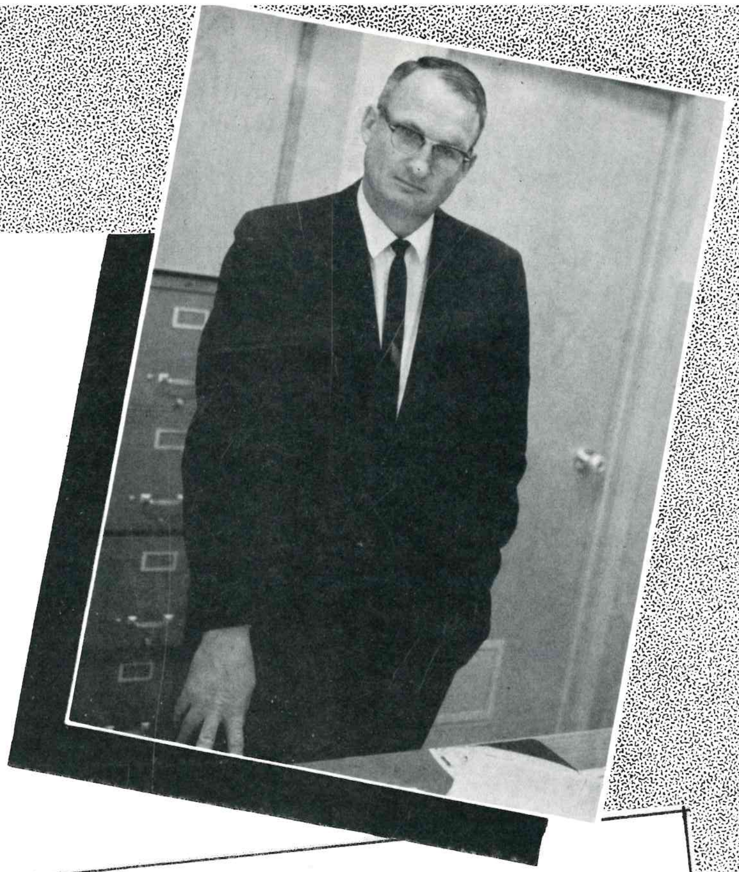
ADMINISTRATION

S. G. Hatch

We, the annual staff and student body of 1964 and 1965, wish to dedicate this edition of the WILDCAT annual to Mr. S. G. Hatch.

We would like to thank him for all the many years of dedication and work for the students of J.C.S.



Principal's Message

Education is not a cost, but an investment in the future. Will our investment in you pay dividends? What are your aims in education? Do you know where you are going? It does little good to say, "I'm on my way and traveling fast" when you don't know where you're going.

Education is the door to the future. Any door can be opened to the person with the education. A person can go as far as he wishes, limited only by his ambitions, his natural talent, and a genuine goal. R. R. Williams wrote:

One ship drives East, another drives West
While the self same breezes blow;
Tis the set of the sail and not the gale
That bids them where to go.

Like the winds of the sea are the ways of fate
As we journey along through life;
Tis the set of the sail that decides the goal
And not the calm or the strife.

Decide on a goal. Set your sail for it, and let nothing stand in your way in reaching it.

Last Will And Testament

I, William (Willy) Conley (Cut) Westover, upon leaving this dear beloved old school, leave some of my abilities (ha! ha!) and priceless treasures behind to those naughty little students of Mr. Ferrin's.

I leave my locker to whoever can get it.

My curly hair I leave to Hopper in hopes he can use and comb it better than I did.

My lab table I leave to Johnny P. so he can squirt water all over the room.

My stinkin' P.E. uniform I leave to whoever can stand to wear it.

To Billy Duncan I leave my basketball uniform in hopes he can make a better name for it than I did.

My books, my so-called good grades, and the other few talents I have and a lot of good memories I leave to Janie.

I, Lorene Westover, upon leaving this dearly (??) beloved school, leave behind a few of my rather worthless possessions.

To Kelsey, I leave a few of my most treasured moments. (50 minutes after school)

To Minnie Jane, I leave my ability to step on Roger Randall's toe.

To Johnny P., I leave my front seat in Biology. (I'm sure he will like it there.)

To Diann, I leave my short pencils.

To June, I leave all my unfinished Geometry problems.

To the rest that feel left out, I leave the trash that is in my locker.

I, Nelson Miller, would like to will some of my JUNK to some of the poor clods who have to stay because of Mental Reasons.

To Susan Inman, I leave the dots on my bed covers in hopes she will have time some night to pick them up.

To the ninth grade, I leave the nut house because most of them will be there after this year.

To Mel, I leave Mendel's famous experiment on peas and peavines, knowing he will gain something from it.

To Roger, I leave my P.E. suit, which has the fresh fragrance of BO and I know it will fit him.

And to Terry and Warren, I leave this will in hopes they can read it.

I, Dennis Ogletree, upon leaving this (?????) school leave this to the students:

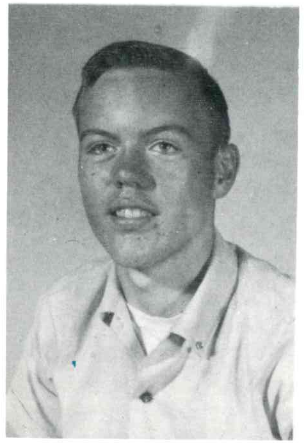
I leave my OKIE accent to all the teachers of the school.

Also I leave my shortness to Richard Mobley so he can jump higher.

I leave my ability to talk to Kelcey so he can talk a little more.

I leave my grades to Ricard O. Donnel.

I leave to Jackie and Wilkie all the good times we had together, getting in trouble, working on cars, and at the Pacific restaurant.



I, Bob Shelley, upon leaving (or staying) this dearly beloved school (???) would like to leave some of my possessions to some poor peons.

To John Lubbers, I would like to leave a match to burn the school down with.

To Kelcey, my obsession to at least make it through one period of English without being taken out.

To Rich M., my biology test tubes which are cracked and chipped.

To Jack F., my P.E. locker which is smelly, and my pencils which I borrowed from Barretta in hopes that you'll find them.

To Mr. Hubbard, my book store debt, that some day I might pay!

I, Richard Wilkinson, upon leaving this dearly beloved school would like to leave some of my most treasured possessions.

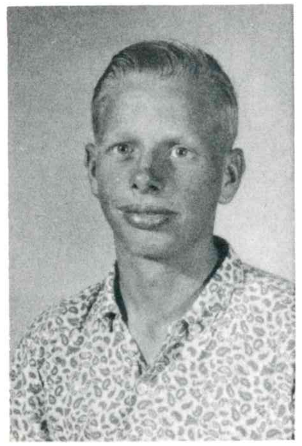
To Jack Foree, I would like to leave my No. 10 basketball suit, in hopes he can use it better than I did.

To Steven Bickford, I leave my ability to foul as soon as I get into a game.

To Roger, I leave some of my height.

I'll need my weight in football.

To everybody else, I LEAVE!



I, Virgil Bushman, Jr., upon leaving this good old school, wish to will some of my stuff to the good students that will be left behind.

To Roger Randall, I leave my ability to not be able to answer any of the questions the teacher asks me.

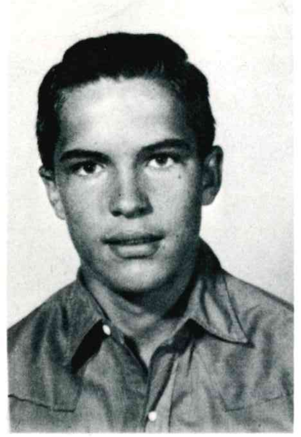
To Mel, I leave my ability to look like I'm studying when I am just sitting.

To some unfortunate student, I leave my broken down locker that won't work.

To some student, I leave my backless literature book in hopes they can get some good out of it.

To Richard Mobley, I leave my stinky P.E. suit #19.

To the rest, I leave . . .



I, Dennis Peterson, upon leaving this dear (OLD) school of J. C. wish to leave my trash to the poor poor students that stay behind.

To Mel, I leave my ability to go through a day of school without hearing a thing the teachers say.

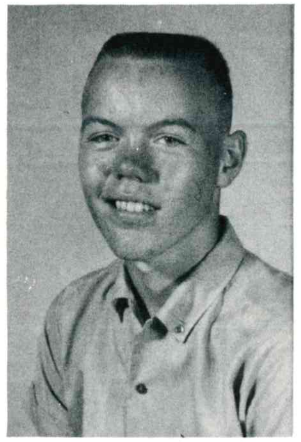
To Rich Miller, I leave a bunch of broken slides, broken test tubes and the rotten celery that is in the bottom of the refrigerator.

To Janie, the 10th grade class will leave Conley.

To Roger R., I leave my tennis shoes and sweaty P.E. suite.

To Mr. Ferrin, I leave some rules.

To the rest, I'll leave!



I, Dick Shelley, being of sound mind and body(??), do will to the undersized, these prized of possessions as a token of my esteem.

To John Clairence Lubbers, the front seat in front of Mr. Hubbard in history. (Use with caution.)

To Milford Rogers, I leave Nelson Miller.

And to Jack Foree, I leave an $86.00 bill to be paid up at the book store.

To everybody else in this school of hallowed halls, or is it hollow halls, an open invitation to visit me at the Mental Institution for Retarded People in Phoenix.

I, Alonzo Bushman, being of sound name and strong body, need to leave some of my most beloved treasures to some of my dim-witted, beloved friends.

First of all to Richard Quintex Miller, I leave my biological table with all its great vigor and water guns.

To Nelson Miller, I leave my ability to fall down in a basketball game and get a floor burn, since he will undoubtedly be here next year.

To Ivan Bushman, I leave my locker No. 17. That old faithful thing has served me well.

To Milford Rogers, I leave all my cookie recipes so that he can lend them to Verlene.

To the rest of you, my memory, because I hope to leave.

I, Susan Inman, at this, the end of some pretty wonderful years at good old J.C.S., wish to will some of my priceless (?) possessions to those I'm leaving behind.

First, to Peggy R., just the memory of those silly, stupid, GREAT times we've had together this past year.

To Peggy M., I leave the bass clarinet, in full!!

To anyone who gets stuck with it, I leave my 1/4 post in the lab table -- have fun!! (I sure did.)

To my good friend Mel, I leave all the knowledge I've acquired in geometry . . . (not that it's going to help you . . .)

And, last, but not least, to all the future sophomores, this advice . . . HAVE FUN!!!

Upon leaving this humpin' school, I,Lee (Luke) Duncan, would like to leave everything except myself.

To Mel, I leave my sweaty P.E. clothes in hopes he will wash them once in awhile.

To anybody, I leave the art of exploring every attic in the school (and getting caught).

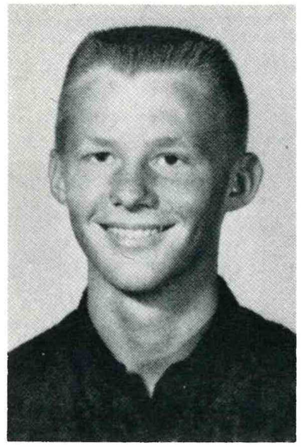
To anybody that can get along with the principal, I leave my eternal motto of being late.

To anybody that likes rotten celery, I leave my lab table (X)and my frozen, rotten, and stinky celery, hoping you can get a partner as biologically minded as Dennis P. (HA-HA)

To this school, I leave the record "Thou Shalt (Not) Steal."

Next, I leave the most intellectually oriented explorer, Mel, to the buildings.

To any of the sophomores, I hope they leave!



Upon leaving this dearly beloved (mental) institute, I, Terry Hunt, leave a few of my possessions to the unfortunate people who have not yet been released.

To Mel, I leave my ability to run down the middle of the highway at night for 30 cents.

To Minnie Pearl, I leave my locker No. 27 with all my rats. (There's a piece of limburger cheese in it to keep them through the summer.)

To Richie, I leave my lab table, complete with beef soup, bacteria, petri dishes, moldy bread, etc.

To Verlene, I leave my ability to be a bad influence and all my old cookie recipes.

To Kelcey, I leave all my old history tests and biology tests, in hopes he can decipher them.

To Susan H., and Janie H., I leave the fond memories of the telephone booth.

And last, but not least, I leave Kenneth Tubbs to Carolyn, since he is planning to be here again next year. AMEN!!

Me, myself, and I, Barretta Williams, upon departing from this fine intellectual institution for delinquents would very reluctantly like to pile upon my poor unfortunate friends (????) some of my most prized and valuable possessions.

To June, I leave my unfailing ability to always be picked on in history and never know the answer.

To the Freshies, I leave the biology room in sincere hopes that they won't become deathly sick upon entering.

To Mr. Ferrin, I leave all my fond memories of ditching band every other day.

To my little brother, I leave all his girl friends and my permission to gab with them on the phone while I'm gone.

To Verleen, I leave what ever it was that Jack Pickett left me last year in hopes that she can figure out what it is.

I, Kenneth Tubbs, being of feeble mind and body, wish to leave some of my possessions to the poor unfortunates who are staying.

To Mel, my ability to flirt with Pearl in student council meetings.

To Eva Lynn, I leave my green eyes with brown specks in them. (Remember how we found out?)

To Freddie, I will my ability to manage the basketball team under coach.

To June, I will my ability to get out on the floor and fall down trying to learn how to dance.

To Verleen, I leave my ability to crawl through (???) windows.

To Jannie, I will my ability to use different people for different purposes.

I, Pat Lacey, upon escaping from this institute of learning, would like to leave a few of my priceless articles to a few unfortunate students, who are to stay behind at school(??).

To Pearl, I'll leave my No. 1 locker, and its contents, which includes stacks and stacks of scrap paper.

To Carolyn, I'd like to leave all of those out of town games, and all the fun we've all had on those trips.

To all of the rest of the freshmen, I'll leave the thought of being the "High and Mighty" of this school next year. Live up to your name!!!
